

Stay

We are located just south of all the hustle and bustle of downtown Atlanta, a perfect place to escape for a good night's sleep. Whether you're a traveler just passing through or enjoying a getaway close to home, McDonough's 800+ hotel rooms offer the best in rest and relaxation. Our warm, modern hotels are an economical alternative to those closer to downtown Atlanta. However, their proximity to Interstate 75 and Hartsfield-Jackson International Airport make them an ideal choice for visitors to the area.

Our accommodations are designed to fit every budget and taste. Major highways provide easy access to downtown and other suburban areas in just a matter of minutes. McDonough provides convenience with a flair of southern hospitality.
